PRODUCE. SUGAR CANE.—Dissolved Peruvian Guano produces strong and succulent canes, rich in orystallizable sugar, without detriment to the productive power of the land. From 3 to 4 owts, of Dissolved Peruvian Guano per acre is a good dressing for Sugar Cane, INDIAN CORN.—Three to 4 cwts. of Dissolved Peruvian Gueno per nore exercises n powerful effect upon Indian Corn, and largely ingreases this crop.

RICE.-We should strongly recommend the use of 2 to 3 owter per sore for Rice, for, although irrigation is generally solely relied upon as a means of producing a good crop of Rice, there can be no doubt that, in addition to irrigation, 2 or 3 owts. of Dissolved Peruvian Guano per acre will be highly beneficial. TBA. Judging from the limited experience at our command with regard to the mapuring of Tea plantations, we confidently recommend it to planters, whose reports we shall be glad

COTTON.-The yield of Cotton bas of late years been greatly increased by the use of artificial manures, containing a fair proportion of ammonia and much soluble phosphate of lime. potasb, and other alkaline salts. Dissolved Peruvian Guano meets the requirements of the Ootton plant, innemuch as it turnishes all the elements of fertility which are calculated to promote the lexurinat growth of the same. the increase in quantity be made the chief object, 4 to 5 owts, of Dissolved Peruvian Guano per acre will prove most advantageous; but if greater care be given to the fine quality of the Uotton, the use of 2 to 3 cwts. of Dissolved Peruvian Guano, together with 2 to 3 cuts, of mineral apperphosphate: per acre, will be found

The subject of merchant shipping, has thus always been one which has been dealt with with great care, and with regard to which the Imperial Government is justly jeulous of its prerogatives. All Colonial logislation has to be in conformity with the general principles Imperial legislation on such subjects, and it would, therefore, be impossible to hurry through a measure of this importance because it is required somewhat urgently in one the inspection of the machinery of sea-going steamers, although such a measure is doubtless greatly required, there is not any special and pressing urgency, and this point can very well remain until the Mr. Molven having explained the subject to whole measure now contemplated is passed. Mr. PYRE observed that he thought this was information which ought to come from Her Majesty's Consul. The CHAIRMAN said that Her Majesty's Consul knew nothing about one of the cases which had been sent for investigation. He made, in a despatch with reference to it, three distinct misstatements | first, he said she was captured by a revenue orniser in the command of Captain Palmer; next, that she could not produce a grand shop for her cargo; and lastly, that the owner appeared at the office of the Superintendent of Customs at Cunton; and having acknowledged the attempt to amuggle the goods into Hongkong, had paid a fine for the release of the jank and cargo. These statements the captain and owner declared were entirely wrong, that the junk had been seized by a Chinese war, junk, and not by Captain Palmer, and that they had never appeared at Canton as stated.
